ENVIRONMENTAL LEARNING CENTER ELECTS NEW TRUSTEES AND OFFICERS

WABASSO ISLAND, Fla. At its annual meeting on November 19, the ELC welcomed new trustees Amanda Ford, Marcia Foresman and Heidi Waxlax. Outgoing trustees because of term limits are Lisa Becker, Charles Pollard and Clemens Schaub. Each of the outgoing trustees will remain active at the ELC: Pollard, outgoing chairman, in an advisory role; Becker, outgoing vice chairman, in the Society for Environmental Education and co-chairman of the ELC gala; and Schaub, who has provided architectural input in the past and is the pro bono architect for the rebuilding of the fire-destroyed buildings.

Also at the annual meeting trustee Eileen Connelly was elected chairman and trustee Thomas J. Spackman, MD, was elected vice chairman. Elizabeth “Tuny” Hill remains secretary and Trevor Smith continues as treasurer.

The Environmental Learning Center is located north of Vero Beach off County Road 510 at the western edge of the Wabasso Bridge. Its 64-acre island campus includes exhibit areas, native plant gardens, picnic facilities, gift shop and visitor center. A list of its many field excursions including hikes, boat excursions, nature walks and bird watching can be found at www.DiscoverELC.org.
